WHAT'S NEW

ALL ABOARD

Fit for outdoor use, the high-powered LED Blakes table lamp, handcrafted in weathered brass, evokes the timeless design of the industrial past. Inspired by a passion for trains and ships, designer Eric Huysmans offers a contemporary twist on an antique lantern. The rechargeable battery provides a lifespan of five hours. $1,875, Interieurs, NYC, 212-343-0500, interieurs.com

OVER THE MOON

Illuminate an evening event with a romantic Globe light. The lamp's pure, simple design adds the effect of a full moon to your garden or patio and creates a warm, pleasant atmosphere. The switch is covered with a protective casing to shield it from bad weather. $525, Ligne Roset, NYC, 212-375-1036, lignerosey.com

FINISHING TOUCH

The revolutionary new Practik rug, made from recycled polyester thread, delivers a welcoming look with a soft finish. The waterproof, fluff-free fabric withstands outdoor conditions and brings practical sophistication to any environment. $2,822 (for 56 x 79 feet), Nanimacorpna, NYC, 646-701-7058, nanimacorpna.com

A REAL PICNIC

With the festive painting Picnic Wedding by Pieter Brueghel in mind, designer Dirk Wijnants reinvents the conventional picnic table with the Hopper table by Extremis, the perfect piece for an outdoor setting. The wooden top and galvanized steel legs combine functionality with innovation for a modern design rooted in historic tradition. Starting at $10,272, Janus et Cie, NYC, 212-752-1117, janusetcie.com
